												Antonov's 40,000 strong peasant partisans in Tambov region = a no-go zone for Red Army
													Mohkno's Revolutionary Insurgent Army
																							Polish threat
																			Japa	anese	threat	s in I	Far Ea	st
		French threats in Black Sea and Archar											hangel
		Czech Legion allies with whites
		British threats in Northern Russia and naval support to Denikin
		Yudenich
	General Millers Northern threat
Kerensky & Kornilov			Kolchak (supreme ruler of the Russian state) was the head of the White Provisional All-Russian Government, based in Omsk.
		General Denikin attacks from South West. Approaches close to 300km from Moscow																Gen	eral V	Vrange	l takes uffers	contr loss a	ol of D	enikins ss	army	/ but
Oct		Jan		Apr		Jul			Oct			Jan		,	Apr			Jul			Oct			Jar	n		Apr			Jul			Oct			Jan
17		18										19												2	20											21
		-12: Kerensky enters Tsarskoye Selo with Cossacks.
		c: Peace Negotiations c: Kornijov threat guickly suppressed
		18 Feb: Withrawal from negotiations; German ploughs into Russian territory
			3 Mar	: Treaty	of Bres	t-Litov	/sk
		12 Mar: Capital moved from Petrograd to Moscow
						17 Ju	I: Tsa	r and	d fami	lly exec	cuted	i																											